 Tennessee Knockout Extreme Enduro

Race Procedures:

1. Each event will be part of the East and West featured championship and will have supplemental regulations in regards to formatting and class structures.
2. The event will be run in a format that produces overall results including all riders by the end of the event.
3. Riders will be eligible for the “Pro class” either through on site qualifying or previous year’s results and national series qualifications.
4. All other rules in the AMA Rulebook under Off-Road 2.9 Extreme Off-Road Meets will be followed.
5. Riders must have personal health insurance to participate in State Championship Extreme Off-Road Meets.

Extreme Off-Road Grand Championship Qualifying:

The following riders will qualify for the AMA Extreme Off-Road Grand Championship:

1. Overall – The top 3 riders overall at each AMA Featured Championship series, non pre-qualified riders, will be qualified directly into the Tennessee Knockout PRO event².
2. Amateur – The Top 10 riders overall at each AMA Featured Championship Event, who are not pre-qualified into the Tennessee Knockout PRO event, will be qualified directly to TKO 2³ at the Tennessee Knock Out Amateur Event. Row assignments will be based on Friday TKO Prologue⁴ Qualifying.
3. TKO1 Qualifiers – The Top 10 riders in TKO 1 at the Tennessee Knockout Amateur Event will qualify to the first 10 Rows of the TKO 2 Round. The final 115 riders in TKO 1 to finish within the allotted time will qualify to the remaining rows of TKO 2.
4. Amateur qualifying riders will pay full entry into the Tennessee Knockout Amateur Event by August 1 2020.
5. If a rider declines his qualifying position, or qualifies for a better starting position, there will be no back-up or replacement riders to fill the position. Riders qualifying through TKO 1 will fill the position based on finish result.

1. TKO 1: The first of three Rounds at the Tennessee Knockout Amateur Event the Saturday prior to the Tennessee Knockout Pro Event on Sunday. Riders must pre-enter the Tennessee Knockout Amateur Event starting December 6th 2018 to guarantee a starting position in TKO 1.
 2. Tennessee Knockout announces pre-qualified PRO event riders based on AMA National Championships, World Extreme Events and past TKO results.
 3. TKO 2: The second of three Rounds at the Tennessee Knockout Amateur Event the Saturday prior to the Tennessee Knockout Pro Event on Sunday.
 4. Friday TKO Prologue: Qualifying held Friday August 17th 2019 for all Amateur TKO Participants to determine their start order for their first race on Saturday. Those who do not participate in the Prologue will be placed based on pre-entry date.
